Mr. Leach moved to amend the first resolution, by striking out after the word "whenever," and inserting the words, "ascertained by the popular vote of the State, that,"

Mr. Cardwell called for a division of the question.

The question then being on the first branch of the motion, viz : upon striking out, was decided in the negative—yeas 42, nays 58.

Yeas and nays called for by Mr. Leach.

Those who voted in the affirmative, were

MESSRS.
